Dearest Mrs. Mangley:

It gives me the greatest of pleasure in writing you this letter. I am doing just fine and in the best of health. I am more than glad to have the opportunity to write to a girl of your type. How are you getting along with your baseball team? Do you still have Leon Day, Wilk's Wilk's and "Mufe" Butler with your team? When I was playing with the Black Yankees in New York, City, I remember your team. We have really had a good team overseas and I have found some really good players in the Army. I would like for you to send me one of your pictures and also your team. I will be looking to hear from you at once.

Yours Truly
Corp. Charles D. Holliday
